1994 TRUST FUND DRIVE

Dear Fellow NROTC Alumnus,

The 1994 Membership Drive was very successful. Thank you for responding with a Membership Donation and also for providing current addresses for yourself and your shipmates that had incorrect or undeliverable addresses in our data base. We update our data base after each mailing, and we hope that you are receiving each newsletter. The "Letters from Alumni" feature has been very well received, and we are adding a "JOB Networking" feature in this newsletter.

We are changing our P.O. Box to a central post office location (P.O. BOX 143562, AUSTIN, TX 78714-3562) in order to provide more efficient service to our membership. We apologize for any inconvenience, and any items mailed to our previous P.O. Box over the next year (P.O. Box 91191, Austin, TX 78709-1191) will be forwarded.

Thanks to each of you who have supported both our Alumni Fund and our Trust Fund with your gifts. Past donors are asked to consider moving up to a higher donor level. Previous contributions combined with a current contribution and possibly matching contributions from your employer can be combined for your new donor level calculation. Those who have not contributed to either the Alumni Fund or the Trust Fund are asked to consider a membership donation to the Alumni Fund and a foundation donation to the Trust Fund. Through your support we all can provide for the future of the UT NROTC unit and our Alumni Association. Detailed instructions to comply with the matching funds process and convenient mail-in forms are provided in this newsletter.

Is an Endowment Justified?

There is a wide agreement that organizations like the UT NROTC Alumni Association must meet a high standard of integrity in the raising and dispensing of charitable gifts. A key issue emerges in using the gifts in strict adherence to the wishes of the donors. Is it correct to capitalize scholarship programs rather than to fund them outright? Critics of philanthropy may attack the general principle of nonprofit endowments and endowment building programs. The Association Directors and Trustees of the UT Midshipman Foundation Trust Fund are following a balanced approach where midshipman programs are funded directly and an endowment is being built at the same time. Your views on this endowment issue are welcome.

Matching Gifts

Many corporations have matching gift programs in which the company will match the gifts of their employees. If your employer has such a program, your gift may be matched dollar-for-dollar, or even two-for-one or more. Please check with your personnel office because you must obtain the matching gift form from your company.

A matching gift account has been established with the Office of Associate Vice President and Business Manager (Development Office) of the University of Texas at Austin in order to implement the matching gift program. The account is entitled "Naval Science - Naval ROTC Alumni Scholarship Fund", and the Department of Naval Science has control of granting scholarships and fellowships from this account. The University has set up this account as an interest bearing account which can grow in value. Note that our Association will provide guidance to the PNS in managing this account for awarding scholarships, but IRS regulations prohibit a donor from specifying the recipient of his or her donation. The account # for the INFLOW OF GIFTS is 30-7446-9093, and this number should appear on the checks of matching gift participants. For information only, the account # for the OUTFLOW OF SCHOLARSHIPS is 30-7446-9070.

Scuttlebutt

Step-by-step instructions are included in this newsletter along with a sample matching gift form used by Texas Instruments Foundation. This particular form is for TI employees only, and it is included for information only to acquaint you with the matching gift concept.

Consider Deferred Gift Options

Donors who want to make charitable gifts usually know they can give during their lifetimes or by bequest in their wills. However, they frequently don't realize they can also make a "deferred gift" which has various tax advantages.

The term "deferred gifts" encompasses a variety of vehicles that allow a donor to make a charitable contribution now while continuing to draw income from the donated funds. Despite their misleading names, these instruments actually create an immediate gift to a recipient organization, although the use of the gift is deferred. The transaction can still qualify for immediate charitable deductions for federal income and gift tax or later deductions on federal estate taxes. The value of the donor's charitable deduction is based on the present value of the remainder interest and calculated according to a series of Treasury Department regulations and tables that consider the annual income interest, life expectancy of beneficiaries, and applicable rate of return. The IRS has published a considerable amount of guidance on creating such instruments, including sample provisions to include in the declaration of trust and instrument of transfer.

UT Midshipman Foundation

Last year we provided a status of the Foundation Trust Fund, and we are thrilled to report that we are continuing to make significant strides in our quest to reach a $100,000 endowment. The expected income will allow us to provide direct assistance to young men and women in the UT NROTC unit who need financial assistance. Thanks to each of you again who have so generously contributed to the foundation in the past.

One of the ways in which we express our appreciation to our donors is by listing their names in our exclusive Donor listing. Requests for anonymity will, of course, be honored. However, we want to publish your names, both as an expression of gratitude and as an inspiration to others. Again, past donors shown in the enclosed listing are asked to consider moving up to a higher donor level, and those who have not contributed to the Trust Fund are asked to consider a foundation donation to the Trust Fund.

Each Donor Level is represented by a physical plaque containing brass, bronze, or granite nameplates. The plaques are displayed on the 3rd deck of the RAS building just outside of the wardroom, and you are welcome to inspect the plaques on your next visit to UT. UT NROTC Unit

Congratulations to the MAY/JULY/AUG 94 GRADUATES! The UT NROTC unit will produce 10 Ensigns/2nd LTs this spring and summer in the following programs:

- 2 - Surface Warfare
- 2 - Aviation
- 1 - Naval Reactors
- 2 - Nuclear Submarines
- 2 - Marines
- 1 - Intelligence

In this era of budget cuts and defense reductions, the midshipman Battalion at UT is getting smaller. Commander, Naval Education and Training (CNET) is offering fewer scholarships and there is keen competition among NROTC universities for those scholarships. This competition is heightened by the fact that about 50% of NROTC schools offer partial or full room and board and/or monetary incentives to students who accept NROTC scholarships. This is the area where your UT NROTC Alumni Association plans to continue growing in its service to the NROTC unit. We would like to provide more scholarships, awards, and grants in order to enhance the strength and vitality of the UT NROTC unit. The PNS has also requested our membership to assist in recruiting qualified NROTC candidates to accept these scholarships.

A $500 grant to the unit this year was partially used as follows: $150 funded a trip for the rifle team to Colorado, where they placed fourth in regional competition. $250 sent Midn John Allison to attend the ROA conference in Washington, D.C., where he met with the SECNAV and CNO. $50 went to construction of a stand on which is mounted the recently decommissioned USS Texas (CG 39) ship's bell.

Dallas/Ft. Worth Chapter Social

The DFW chapter has scheduled its next get-together on Saturday, 10 Sept. 94, again at the lovely home of Doug and Donna Fisher, 2 Country Place, Bedford, TX 76021. Burgers will be provided and a $5 donation will be accepted. Bring your own drinks. PNS CAPT Bill Graner plans to attend if his schedule permits.

Letters from Alumni

Dear WWII UT NROTC Shipmates: 14 June 94

You could hardly have missed recent events commemorating the 50th Anniversary of D-Day. Perhaps you felt, as I did, the powerful, bittersweet jolt of recollections from those times.

Several of us, from a mix of wartime NROTC classes, have talked recently about our November 4 reunion in Austin. Kirk Cansler, Larry Jones, Joe Smith, Mickey Smith, and I carry no formal titles - just a strong desire, following the recent events, that we do all possible to bring members of the WWII group to this year's reunion. This is the year to do it. Time does march on!

Here are some of our thoughts: First, we need more time for visiting; how about a dutch lunch, preferably Tex-Mex, for those who can get in that early on Friday? From 2:00 to 5:00 PM, we could get together on campus to get reacquainted with one another and with the campus itself. In the evening, we can go back to the Austin Country Club for another dinner like the one Kirk and Virginia Cansler put on for us last year. (We pay, of course.)

Next day, the NROTC Alumni Association will meet in the morning, followed by the Aggie game (Yes, due to television, it's on November 5) and the general NROTC Association festivities that evening. We will have a block of game tickets available. Don't let this one pass you by. Etch the date of Friday, Nov. 4 on your mind and your calander. If you have a favorite hotel or motel in Austin, get on the horn and reserve a room. Look over the NROTC Alumni Association list (and Texas Tradition 1944 or Cactus) for the people you would especially like to see again; call or write them ASAP. If you have questions, suggestions, or ways you can help, contact one of us or any of the other 15 shipmates who attended the 1993 reunion.

This year has huge historical significance, an extended chance to visit, and the Aggie game. How could we ask for more?

SEND NO MONEY NOW! Just make your own commitment to join us in Austin on Nov. 4-5. Updates and registration forms will be coming your way later.

For all of us who treasure our shared NROTC memories.

Dear UT NROTC Alumni Association: Apr 94
My husband (Clifton Elwain Mitchell, 1944) of almost fifty years passed away on Sept. 10, 1993. He has always been proud of his UT NROTC affiliation.

(Mrs) Helen D. Mitchell

Dear UT NROTC Alumni Association: 18 Apr 94
Upon opening my son Steve's NROTC Alumni Newsletter, I found my name on your "dead" list, otherwise known as ANK. I was in the class of 51, not 50 as you indicate.

I very much enjoyed reading your newsletter, and will make every attempt to attend your reunion this year. It would be good to see more members of the class of 51 be in the association.

I don't know whether anyone is keeping a history of the unit and it's activities. One colorful bit of history concerns the Crow's Nest, which for over 20 years played a role in the life of the unit. Upon returning from my 2nd class cruise in 1949, I somehow met up with about 10 guys who had just come back from their 3rd class cruise. We had no idea where we were going to live when the fall semester started, and we were all (to put it mildly) poor. We decided we would rent a house, hire a cook, and start a COOP. I can't remember all the names, but I'm certain William Robert Brown, Steve Albrecht, Frank T. Woodall, Henry J. Rech, Joe Rice, and Richard L. McVay were plank owners in that enterprise. I also believe T.J. O'Neill, Roscoe H. Cannon, and James A. Schrinier were original members. A contest was held to determine the name, and "Crow's Nest" was the winner. It was definitely a low-rent operation - We rented a moderately run-down two-story house immediately behind the then Kappa Gamma house. I understand the education building now occupies the spot. Much of the silverware was "liberated" from local restaurants and the Commons. The PNS wanted no part in recognizing us. I'm not certain how long the "Nest" remained in that original location, but in about 1960, when I was Material Division officer at NAS Corpus, some UT middies came to see me with a requisition for surplus furniture, etc., with which to "upgrade" the Nest. The Unit was giving at least some support. In 1973, my son Steve became a UT middie, and I went with him to visit the Nest. It was on 24th Street. Hardly the Taj Mahal, and the following year, the Nest moved to a location on Nueces. A couple of years later, Steve became President of the Nest, and enlisted me and my old Crow's Nest roommate Bob Brown, a lawyer in Houston, to help get funding for a first rate Nest. The Nesters had hired an architect and had some nice plans. We tried several sources, the major one being Ross Perot. There was no luck, and I understand the Nest moved still again into a rented place. Since Steve graduated, I've lost track of the fate of the Nest. I understand it is no more, but I'm sure many of the guys who lived there can remember some great times.

Dear UT NROTC Alumni Association: 15 Apr 94

Please note - you are sending me Double mailings of the Newsletter and Roster. G.R. Bettle and Dick Bettle are the same person. Correct graduation/commissioning date is 1963.

Also note - Address of John Michael Beidel is 511 Arrowhead, Richardson, TX 75080. Graduation date 1963 but Mike was not commissioned owing to physical problems.

Thanks for keeping me posted.

G.R. (Dick) Bettle, 1963

Dear UT NROTC Alumni Association: 2 Mar 94

In looking through my files of the unit, I realized that I never renewed my membership during 1993. I have enclosed the same form from last year's package, and I want to continue my contact with the Alumni Association.

On 1 Aug 1994 I will retire as a 26 year Surface Warfare Captain, and I am immensely proud to have been a member of the UT NROTC unit from 1963-1968.

My intentions are to return to Texas if the employment opportunities exist. Does the Alumni Association or the Texas EXes maintain a networking listing of employment opportunities in Texas? I would like to receive your latest Alumni Directory for possible assistance in networking in Texas.

CAPT James A. Brotherton, USN, 1968

Dear UT NROTC Alumni Association: 6 Apr 94

Please update your records on Ester J. McClure, 1987. She is currently stationed at Newport, R.I.:

She completed a tour of duty on USS ACADIA (AD 42), first as Damage Control Officer and then as Navigator. She saw action in the Gulf War and earned her SWO pin. She is a popular and successful instructor at the training program at SWOSCOLCOM.

If you write to her, she may write an article for your Alumni news.

She hopes to be billeted on a combatant for her next tour of sea duty, and she is working to complete her MA in Marine Affairs at the University of Rhode Island before she is transferred.

Her career has been very interesting and would be an encouragement to other young women involved in the UT NROTC program.

Dear UT NROTC Alumni Association:

Please note that I went to school as HEADLE (maiden name) and NO ONE will think to look for me anywhere else in your list. Can you maybe list me under H (Headle) and refer to my married name (COOPER)?

Board Membership/Volunteers

Intellectually, everyone acknowledges that the members of a nonprofit board are volunteers. By law in most states, nonprofit boards are required to be comprised of volunteers. The theory goes that the best way to assure donors of proper expenditure of funds is to make sure that the governing board has no personal vested interest in the finances of the organization. This concept of "trusteeship" is one of the key factors differentiating the nonprofit board from the for-profit corporate board.

What are some of the "good volunteer management principles" that should be applied to board members? The first is to define the role of board members as clearly and specifically as possible. For example, in addition to the usual task list, a board member should be informed of the following:

- The amount of work expected to prepare for board meetings. (minutes, financial reports, etc.)
- Expected service on subcommittees and estimated time per month. (reunion, nominations, trust, etc.)
- Being a resource as an individual - giving the Chairman or other staff access to one's time, ideas, or other things that might help the organization.

Our goal is to have the most active group of board members possible, especially since we are reducing our board to 12 members. We would like you to volunteer to serve your Alumni Association on a committee to assist the Board, as a Regional Director or assistant, and eventually as a Board member. You can help us with reunion activities, newsletters, mailings, etc.

Max Miller, 1957, was appointed chairman of our Nominating Committee on 18 June. Max and his committee will be nominating officers, board members, and committee volunteers for 1995. If you can help, please contact Max at 7407 Valburn Drive, Austin, TX 78731-1147. (H) (512) 345-0793, (B) (713) 589-0003.

Trust Fund

We want to encourage you to support your Association not only through a trust fund donation but also through your active, in-person participation. You are invited to attend the Annual Reunion on Saturday, 5 November 1994, in Austin on the Texas-Texas A&M football weekend. The reunions have always been a highlight of the year for many of us who have renewed old friendships and met alumnus from other years. Please come and enjoy a fun time. Also, please send articles for this newsletter that you would like to share with your classmates. More details concerning the Fall Reunion will be mailed in the Reunion newsletter. May each of you have fair winds and following seas in your endeavors.
